BLUE BLUES / WHERE'S THE PARTY? / NEVER AGAIN! / THE FOOLISH

Political Entertainers (MAKE OUR OWN MUSIC)

By Mack the Knife

Black people are still having problems getting ourselves organized, so most of those in positions of what are commonly called leadership positions, are nothing more than political entertainers. It's nothing now days to see attention hungry Negroes on Saturday Night Live, BETV, OWN or TV ONE or shaking their booty with the Hoochies & Bamas on a music video. It's for "THE PARTY" right? You might even see a puppet Negro or Negress propped up in your locality with a TV show, making sure you waste time trying to decide which is the lesser of two, three or four evils. These Negroes will push all and any products except for those that emphasize their focus on their own kind, with a thousand, million reasons why not! Too often we have Black people leading and entertaining us that don't love us. They don't even like us. All they continue to do is dance to so called White people's out of tune music!

We have a bunch of semi-harmless caricatures running around the country, no around the world, trying to hog up as much press as possible. We have mischievous ministers, with & without churches

Where are our political parties,
our conventions,
our school systems, our businesses and

and congregations, leading us to wherever and whatever. We have comedians reprimanding and nobody knows if it's a joke or the next in a line of promotions for a new show, some sugary cereal or drink, a pizza or a bowl of Jell-O. You can't be serious?

We got lots of wanna bees ready to get down with the BAIT & SWITCH and do the FLIP/FLOP dance. Their emphasis is on integration and civil rights, which didn't work in the sixties, seventies, eighties, and nineties and ain't working now. We have not yet established for ourselves a common, acceptable educational system, commerce system, transportation system or economic system that provides for ourselves exactly what we want. These jokers are into accepting hand-downs and interpretations that other groups have offered us and that is what we spend our money and waste our precious time on.

Where are our political parties, our conventions, our school systems, our businesses and our churches?

There are national organizations trying to get us as many roles as possible as buffoons in the largest propaganda, brainwashing machine ever made on the planet. Where are the people and leadership espousing support your own, be with your own, live, love and die for your own. Is there anybody out there that isn't trying to include Black people in a big melting pot, frying pan?

We have seen that the only thing that most middle income Blacks and newly rich Blacks can do is move out and run from the Black community, occasionally dropping a few crumbs, but afraid to take any stands for the rest of us.

Entertaining was and still is their priority. The only nation building they see is themselves with a position and phony title in some other group's empire.

Not all Black folks want any crumbs; want to be set-up, propped-up, exploited and always begging and competing against each other for crumbs from somebody foreign to us.

For the past fifty years, Black people have been voting and participating in somebody else's party, like Black people don't know how to party. Maybe we need to start our own "party" and see if so called White people can dance to our music, when we run the show!

CRACK HEAD NEWS

WHERE'S THE PARTY?

Nobody has a BLACK AGENDA!

Those who ignore and take for granted Black voters are still prone to get their time and votes. Many of us are hooked on some type of vote drug as vote fiends and are developing dopey voter sickness.

Why are Black people required to love America, but America is not required to love Black people?

Carbon dating can only effectively reach back 50,000 years.

More and more scientist across the planet are starting to believe that the Grand Canyon in the United States was another Black pyramidal complex.

Some of the things we think are fun are extremely dangerous. Check yourself, before you wreck yourself.

Museums do suppress information to help maintain the status quo.

Is the rise in vaginal cancer due to chemically produced plastic sex toys and condoms that release toxins into the body when heated?

The more a child reads, the likelier they are able to understand the emotions of other.

Many Black people in the U.S. still believe that White people are gods.

Back in the day, it was "Support A Black Business". Now Nyggas take the short cut and "Support a Business where a Nygga works". Places like Popeye's, McDonalds, Footlocker, Church's Chicken, Chic-fil-A, NBA, Burger King, B-E-TV, Wal-Mart, Target, Social Security, City Hall and you know the deal. Couldn't list all the temp-agencies, hospitals and nursing homes we work for.

Remember that true organic products never contain potentially harmful chemical ingredients.

Choosing the lesser of two evils does not negate evil. Please choose another slogan

Not long before the Korean War, before their country became divided, Korea was colonized by Japan.

Blacks labor helped build European Empires, but any ownership we may have had is long gone. Doing research and having dreams of what was, is great, but it won't mean much if we cannot deal with each other in a civilized manner. Egos, in-fighting and assimilated betrayals are at an all time high.

SIAM

Back in the day, when Black women worked in White folks homes as domestics, it was nothing for a White woman to smack a Negro woman whenever she felt like it. You think a Negro woman was gonna come home and tell her family about it?

Are your political leaders examples of resistance to the viciousness of the United States or are they just hired help?

Back in the day, Black people felt like they had to deal with "THE MAN". Do you think things have changed? Now 85% of the elementary school teachers in America are White and female. Can we depend on White females to educate our children, our future? Where do you think we are going and what do you think our future looks like? Are White females going to educate Black children to solve the problems that confront our people or will our young children, males and females, see the world as or think like a White female?

Does anybody know any dope fiends that didn't start with marijuana?

All Black women don't go to Chinese, Korean or whatever stores to get their nails, toes and hair done, did or whatever

People that got jobs because of the Civil Rights Era can read, but they have been taught to read without understanding what they read or the implications of what they are reading. Once they retire from the plantation, most become worthless. No disrespect, but most have been worked so hard in somebody else's system, that upon retirement they "think" its playtime again.

Black Grapevine news- While de facto and de jure European slavery has been suppressed, but never entirely stopped, Arab slavery of Africans persists openly and seems to be increasing.

The 1990s were the most punitive decade in U.S. history, with more people incarcerated than in any prior decade. Most of the prisoners can be contributed to the Democrat Bill Clinton reign of terror. The total number of prisoners reached two million in February of 2000, giving the U.S. one quarter of the world's eight million prisoners. Thanks Bill, the Negro just loves you and the Democratic Party! That's how we roll!!

Wigga news- Women's studies were created to replace Black studies.

KNIGHT

Just as they now have feminist teaching young girls that they didn't need men; now they've got queer and pedophile homosexuals teaching young boys that they don't need women. It may not be time to get rid of the "N" word just yet. Never stop being a parent. You know who "they" are!

If your heritage and history in the Americas before slavery is not documented in United States history books for all to see, you and your children are victims. Let's not be foolish about this shit! You can ban all the "N" words you want, but unless you stop the denial, you ain't foolin' nobody but yourselves. If you take the lies out, you must replace them with the truth Negro!

Over half the adults in the United States don't deal with the electoral process publicized by the media. They have other priorities and develop their own leadership first.

When the Church brings the State into the Church, that defines the state of the church.

In the Dirty South, the typical plantation had more than 20 slaves. The capital value of the slaves was greater than the capital value of the land and implements.

Speaking Spanish does not get you a "I'm not Black" pass in the United States.

ROCKY JOHNSON LIVES, DAVID WATERS LIVES, B. SMITH LIVES, McCOY TYNER LIVES, KENNETH (FLIP) WILKINS LIVES, KATHERINE JOHNSON LIVES, PETE BRANDON LIVES, JANET DUBOIS LIVES!

Will whoever you vote for give you "any" policies that reflect your interests or are you just whistling Dixie?

Is it a bio-chemical imbalance for a female to take a piece of plastic and pretend she is a he or is that emotional and thought disorders? What's Up?

Anybody that doesn't realize that Black people are on differing levels of learning and consciousness is an idiot. You might think you have it going on, but you don't.

People of so called advanced civilization, do not have survival skills.

BLACK SMITH

What have the chumps you've been voting for in this "democracy" done as far as getting policies enacted that correspond to Black voters views? That bullshyt about not voting and not being able to complain is just as bullshyt as your voting for lesser evil slogan. Are you ready to admit that you are your own worst enemy? lol.

The Nubian Times

You can never be a man if you allow the Beast to dominate your spirituality. You can never be a woman if you allow the Beast to dominate your spirituality. Never Ever!

Now that Black people are not the largest minority in the United States, you are going to learn what "people of color" is all about. If Black people don't seek power and think about the future, they will have more problems than they can handle. You can't judge people on your personal feelings or it may not be time to get rid of the "N" word just yet! Groups don't have permanent friendships or relations, they only have permanent interests Boo.

TARTAR PEOPLE

Moor Wigger news- Somewhere along their time line, white people saw the benefits of uniting their nationalities and differences to make EMPIRE!

Black people across the planet must unite, find the many things they have in common and overcome any language barriers.

Moor Black grapevine news- For Black people, the U.S. is like a TRAP HOUSE. The only code is White Supremacy. Black people have no real code of their own. We are united on nothing except for what white people allow us to do..

BLACK GIRL MAGIC IS REAL!

While people are quick to yell BLACK GIRL MAGIC, until they see Black girls doing actual magic. Then they are DEMON WORSHIPPERS. Go figure!

As support for a policy rises within the Black community, the odds of it being achieved actually decline.

The Black power movement of the sixties never died. It's just that the "bullshit" Negroes cut their Afros, discarded their cultural garb and found Jeri curl juice. Some even decided they'd hide behind the skirts of White girls. Black power is still alive and well, but it still ain't televised.

If somebody has to give you Civil Rights, make the playing field level or make some jobs for you, you are either a victim or an underling, but you ain't equal to whatever it is you are trying to be equal to. You better learn how to fight Yo or keep getting' your azz whipped!

Negroes struggle between their allegiance to Black people and their lust for White satisfaction.

White people are in charge of our destinies as far as their media is concerned. Black folks have little to no say, whatever we choose to call ourselves, whatever our religious beliefs, whomever we choose to follow and whoever we choose to vote for. Black media for the most part is dead or dying. This must change.

Does what you want for a country jive with what white people want? If not, then it ain't really your country. You either lack power or are unable to exert any power for fear of colorless people's agendas.

Black News-Several Black scientists have theorized that Caucasoids were the first albinos on the planet. These albinos mutated when exposed to Black science and civilization. These albinos would have probably died out if left alone or to themselves. The proceeding temporary integration with Blacks has caused Mutant Albinos to also call themselves Hue-man, although for the most part, they are still colorless people. (Neanderthals)

Can you tell the difference between Black people and White people? It may not be time to get rid of the "N" word yet. You may have been fed hopelessness in the name of Black advancement.

A not so silent member of N.W.A
(Nubian World Alliance)

What are you programming yourself with? Everyday you decide what is important. You make decisions. You have choices, but those choices may be limited. What are you programming yourself with? Is it the daily local and national news? Is it soap operas and comedy sit-coms? Don't you realize you are being programmed and just going along with the program? Your life is under control.

Day after day, most Black people only sit and listens to White people's codes about what White forces are going to do to them. They listen to and try to speculate about where White forces are going to try to dominate, so White people can be safe forever.

Join a Black organization. Maybe, just maybe, you might get the opportunity to do something for some of your own people this time. Maybe, just maybe, you might be the determining factor that turns some of the old, stagnant organizations of our past around. You never know...stay positive, the struggle continues. NWA forever!

BLACK FACTS

Sometimes we have to take the good with the bad, but all knowledge is rooted in reality. The following information doesn't even get out to 1/2 of 1% of our people!

Reparations wouldn't be necessary if the people freed from slavery had been allowed to produce for themselves, without Jim Crow laws and jealous whites rioting and burning down whole, successful cities.

In 1991, the United States returned about 68,000 square acres of land to the Washitaw Nation of Louisiana, one of the prehistoric Black nations of the United States. This group of Blacks is the evidence of the Black ownership of land and the Black presence before English and Spanish/French colonization of North America.

Black civilizations were never isolated from each other, with little contact between each other. Humans have a tendency to want to relate & be with other humans and most shy away from other species. Not all, but most!

Hysterectomy (pronounced his - ter-rek-ter-me) - a medical operation to remove part or a woman's entire womb. It's the European version of female mutilation. Europeans have two main ways to perform a hysterectomy. The most common way is to remove the uterus through a cut in the lower abdomen, the second, less common, way is to remove the uterus only through a cut in the top of the vagina, and the top of vagina is then stitched. Each operation lasts between one to two hours and is performed, in hospital, under a general anesthetic.

The Famous and The Foolish

Re-print of Sister Niger

If the Black families shown in the media are any indication of the status of the Black family in America, we are some fu**ed up folks!

In the last 25 years, we have been seeing a rise in Black entertainment families. Families with more than one-member playing parts in the media as sports figures, entertainers or actors.

The media is particularly interested in the lifestyles of rich and famous Black families. These Black families are so damn interesting, because they come off as being insecure and freakish. The media gives them too much exposure and makes them household names.

During the eighties Black people were bombarded with the Jackson family. We saw Michael Jackson change into the very pale monstrous "Michelle". Janet Jackson changed into "John", with a hard, mannish body and face. Black men and women were being fed an artificial example of beauty. Latoyia Jackson changed into the false-faced look of a drag queen.

The rest of the family members had something changed on their person that they were not originally born with. The more we saw the Jackson family, the more we saw how screwed up they really were.

The Wayans buffooned their way into the nineties with their Amos & Andy comedy. Every male actor in the family has sported a dress or impersonated a female. The female in the Wayans family is loud, goofy and mannish. Most of the Wayans comedy is centered on homosexuality and stupidity. It would appear on screen that this Black family is a joke or incapable of being serious about anything in life. Are they acting or is their family really filled with such stupidity?

The William's Tennis Dynasty is kicking some ass in the new Millennium. Those sisters, Venus and Serena can play some tennis, no doubt! Mom and Dad made the impossible possible. Venus and Serena have busted into the golden girl sport of tennis with a double dose of color and real athletic superiority.

With all that said, it pains me to say that the William's family is the newest Black family of the Famous and the Foolish. Somewhere in the picture of tennis, the Williams females want to be golden girls too. Mother, Aunts, Cousins and Serena are sporting hair more golden than any White girl's hair. The Williams sister's Mother has become so star struck that she is now going to the extreme with an orange-yellow AFRO to gain more attention. She has created an image of "Mama Williams the Clown". It appears that the Williams family is becoming the entertainment for the tennis circus.

I have heard people say many times somebody has to live the life of the rich and the famous. With Black people it turns into the rich and famously foolish. Most of the Black rich and famous have become entertainers for America's freak show and the price of a ticket is your mind.

The Nubian Times

RELIGION

The Gospel According To
High Priestess Chielo Israel

“You have to realize that whoever has shaped your thinking as far as your beliefs, then they know how to control you. When you believe according to how someone has taught or programmed you to believe, then they know all about what makes you emotional and what things are dear to you. They know your frame of reference, because they know your beliefs. You are no mystery to the people who have given you these religions, because now they know everything that makes you do what you do. That’s very critical as far as issues of mind control, economic control and mass people control.”

CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT

The Gospel According To

“All the time we’ve blamed white men, and institutions, but where do these men come from? Where are the institutions coming from- they have a mother. They have an original place. I suggest we look at the mental womb and the physical womb of White women so that we can gain a better understanding.”

The Nubian Times

“Collectively Black women teach how to survive while being oppressed. And collectively White women teach how to maintain oppression.”

TO BE AN AFRIKAN WOMAN

The Gospel According To
Dr. Marimba Ani

“We come from a context in which the female principle, the mother principle is honored. It is seen as not only necessary to the healthy development of civilization, but it is seen as being the primary factor in terms of giving a “rootedness” to that civilization.

That’s where we come from. So when we want to think about ourselves as Afrikan women, that’s got to be our reference point. Otherwise we are suffering from cultural amnesia and we are allowing somebody else’s definition of reality to determine how we deal with each other.”

Because if you’re gonna be speakin’ for a whole generation and you know enough to handle their education, be sure you know the real deal about past situations.”

TRENDING NOW

DIVIDED & CONQUERED

The Gospel According To

Booty Adams

“Our brains & minds went dead when we started thinking that Black men and Black women are two separate and distinct groups. If the men get beat down, sooner or later, the women are going to suffer. If the women have to go without, eventually the men are going to suffer. Only a bunch of fools would allow themselves to be played like that. How is it that we let any of our people get whipped and beat and the other half thinks they are going to be just fine? Ain’t that much praying and getting a good education in the world. Too many of our people are just sorry “azz family members” convinced they are individuals on a race conscious planet, with no understanding of white supremacy.”

RESERVATIONS

The Gospel According To

Alden C. Mayfield

“Reservations have systematically emasculated and dehumanized the aboriginal race in order to eradicate any future notions of nationalism, independence and Statehood. Reservations are essentially long-term tools of colonization in order to make natives powerless in reclaiming their lands for independent Statehood. As such, aboriginals on reservations are essentially powerless to reclaim their lands through legal or political institutions.”

The world fears time, but time fears only the Pyramids.

Please explain to me why African people need to move backwards? There is no great achievement in becoming controlling, barbaric, and spiritually out of touch with Universal Laws. Is this the great achievement we seek? I don't think so. African people need to reach educational parity with our Ancestors, not white folks! We need to exercise our minds so that we may know what our Ancestors knew.

The period of enslavement is not the reference point for the beginning of the most Ancient people on Earth, Africans. The period of enslavement does not give us the accurate starting point for which to measure our growth. It is a period representing the beginning of the most primitive and barbaric existence African People have known. It is no coincidence that Europeans (white folk) were key players in this beginning. It is backwards to seek solutions for our problems from our children. Everything they think and do is a warped, slanted, racist, variation of our origin. They are the anomaly, and we are now supposed to "reach parity with them?" This is a genocidal concept.

We are not up from slavery, we are down from grace. As long as we continue to be misled into believing the answers to our problems can be found by getting what white people have, or searching this racist system or it's government for solutions, African people will continue to suffer and die a slow death while swimming around in this cesspool of grime and swamptrash.

I say, get the hell out of the poison. Get into our minds, connect with our Ancestors and THINK! As long as the Pyramids stand, having been built by our African Ancestors, and we don't know how it was done, then there is plenty of room for turning inward and finding our own solutions to our own problems. We have to begin knowing the answers are there.

White people and what they are doing or not doing are not the only options we have. Being preoccupied with what white people "are or are not doing," "should be doing," "should acknowledge," or "should take responsibility for," is a waste of African peoples time. They do not give a damn about African People. They never have and they never will. How many more Africans must die this slow death before we realize this?
