DEPRESSION OR OPPRESSION/ FIGURATIVELY SPEAKING/ WHAT TIME?

THE GAME

Reprint of Magick1010

America is a game. A game of opportunity, high stakes & chance. A game where there are winners and there are losers. A game where everything you own can become the property of someone else. A game where Black people must look out for their own interests.

Now, picture yourself sitting at a poker table. Young and old White faces sit around the table. You are the only Black person at the game. You are representing your people. The dealer deals out the cards. Your palms are hot and sweaty. The air smells of cigar smoke and perfume from the honeys at the back of the room. Could this be your lucky day? All eyes are on you. You pick up your hand and open the cards ever so slightly. Your eyes light up. But there is one problem. YOU AIN'T GOT NO CHIPS YO! You are being played as the Joker! How the hell you gonna call yourself a player and you ain't got no chips? America is a game Yo! Yeah, you got money in your pocket, but you ain't got no chips where it counts. You cannot be counted in America if you have no land. You are only a 2nd class citizen (playa) in America if you don't have property. Black people have no land. You cannot be represented by anyone if you have no property. You a player at the table with no chips and no stakes! Everybody at the table is laughing at you like you are a clown or one of those Black comedians they see on TV. YOU ARE A JOKER.

U GOT NO CHIPS! U ARE BEING PLAYED JOKER!

You have no chance of winning the jackpot.

Your only chance at participating in the game (being a playa) is to force the other players to give you your long over due reparations. Make them ante up for you and take your table stakes out the pot. If you can't sit at the table with some chips (land-cash-money-land), than you shut the game down by any means necessary. You gotta stop everybody from playing you for a joke (JOKER!)

BLACK FACTS

All knowledge is rooted in reality

Many a Kenyan are leaving European dominated countries because of the global economic crisis to return home to Africa. In Africa they might be able to unite and handle the situation, but in European dominated societies, the most they can get is a jail cell if they are not real careful. Some get a first hand look at the Beast in the West.

The land of Zimbabwe was being used to feed England and France before Mugabe's attempt to give the land back to Afrikans.

The so-called "low castes" or indigenous, black population of India have converted to other religions to escape the most barbaric, inhumane system of racist oppression in the world, Aryanism/Hinduism.

To many African on the Continent, the United States and the Diaspora in general, do not want to think critically, do not want to work hard and do not believe in themselves or others that look like them, but instead freely choose to look towards others for solutions to their own problems, food, clothing and shelter.

Black men live longer when they are married to Black women.

African=Americans give 99 1/2% of their income to Europeans. Most of the 10% they supposedly give to Black churches or religious temples goes to European banks.

People have always made alliances with Afrikans to benefit themselves and then broke those alliances when it was no longer to their benefit to do so. Afrikans must learn the same principle.

Africans in the Diaspora are increasingly giving their children African names.

The Creator made it so that Black people were the first people on planet Earth.

The Catholic Church has 185 million members in Africa - 20 percent of the continent's population.

Black people no where are in an armed struggle against White Supremacy.

In the Americas, Black people can tell you everything they are mixed with like its some kind of badge of honor.

911 is most frequently used by Black people. They are the only people that cannot protect themselves. There is no internal autonomy and our enemies know it.

Australian- KOORIA Means Black People.

Peace is not the absence of war, but the presence of justice.

African=Americans that buy into the programming of White Supremacy, always dislike themselves and find it easy to fight people that look like them.

At birth, there are more Black boys born into the world than there are Black girls.

Individual advancement does not mean advancement for the race. One, two or ten people getting a good job does not mean advancement to the race.

Black people cannot fight White Supremacy if any of us think that we are White people and have White privilege.

The first Universities that were on the planet were in Africa.

During Afrikan colonization, Neo-colonization, Apartheid and Arab slavery, Afrikans in the Motherland had no choice but to live lives as bad as those Afrikans captured and put into slavery in the Americas.

To people of color, the terms faggot or lesbian don't always have anything to do with sex, but always have something to do with weak!

In Africa, mainstream Christian churches, evangelical churches and Muslin faiths are growing with no end in site. All of these religious organizations are lead and controlled by Europeans or either Arabs.

All 54 countries of the Afrikan continent are now hooked up to the Internet. There are an estimated four to eight million subscribers across the continent.

IZWELETHU

Izwelethu is the indigenous name for colonial mis-name South Africa. This word means Our Nation in the Nguni language, Which is the mother tongue of the majority of the people of Izwelethu. Umhlaba is the indigenous word for land. Azania is of Arab origin, and has never been used by our people, for our land. There are nine indigenous languages in the nation: Pedi, Sotho, Tswana, Venda, Tsonga, Swazi, Ndebele, Xhosa and Zulu. The name Azania has no meaning in any of them. In a mis-guided sense of nationalism, this word was co-opted by the liberation movement. We all must learn.

The Nubian Times

There are about 50 million Blacks in the United States, especially when you add the 10 million people of Afrikan descent who come from lands that were conquered by Spanish Europeans.

In Afrikan culture, the ability to stay with your children is the best definition of manhood.

Any people that do not respect their history, truly deserve their future.

Black celebrities have to be responsible to Black people and not mis-direct them to products that are detrimental to our survival. Beware double agent, Black celebrities that advertise food and drink products that are not of the best interest to your body and your health. Black people do not do well with diets that contain high concentrations of animal fat & protein or drinks loaded with white sugar, just to name a few products usually endorsed by our own sell-outs.

The dominant languages for Afrikans that have been conquered & victimized are English, Spanish, French and Arabic. The language a Black person speaks, outside of Afrikan languages, usually depends on the group that conquered their ancestors, enslaved or colonized them.

African-Americans are the best friends that any race could have. It is easy to amass wealth off their ignorance and stupidity.

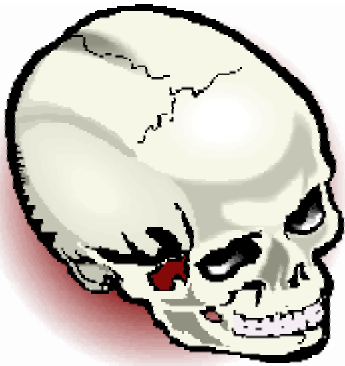

In South Africa, "Affirmative Shopping" is an ironic term used to describe the theft of property from affluent whites by black youths.

Africanization means that Africans must own the wealth, the land and the minerals of Africa.

CRACK HEAD NEWS

DEPRESSION or OPPRESSION ISSUE

The staff of the Nubian Network

Black youth are showing sure signs of their depression when they start acting like War Lords over their own people. The same people they want to support them, they come at with ego and a jailhouse kind of mentality. Most don't realize that they are the best tools of the enemy, as they are the people that must live the longest with no direction, never really knowing which way they are going. Their depression really shows when they want to smash and trash everybody living and only pay homage to dead people.

Any Black woman that thinks that White women won't murder them to get what they want has lost their African mind. You can act all cozy with them if you want to. Play "we in this thing together" all you want to, but It may not be time to get rid of the "N" word just yet Boo. Madd cows will take you out Shorty!

Don't think, that they think, you all that and a bag of chips. They'll take you man, your children and your life. Look out for the angry White female. It's crunch time. Black feminist about to get stabbed in the back!

Are you ignorant enough to think that 23 million Mexicans or Latinos or whatever crawled under some barbed wire fence to get to the United States. You know dam well that Corporate Crackers made some kind of arrangements to get them here, playing the cheap labor game.

Back in the day, when Black folks walked off the plantation with raggedy clothes, bare feet and nowhere to go, it was called F-R-E-E-D-O-M. Now when you leave your parents house or walk off the office plantation with no place to go, you can have a degree, a designer bag, a nice ride and designer clothes, but its called H-O-M-E-L-E-S-S!

Black GrapeVine news- Michelle Obama has changed the mindset of millions of youthful Black girls around the world already. Black scientist equate it will take the wicked, European at least 50 years of organized terror or 25 years of psychological torture to revert these young ladies back to feminist, not worth a cent to the development of their own communities.

Wigger news- If X-President George Bush leaves North America; he could be arrested for WAR CRIMES. Everywhere he goes on the planet, all people want to do is pummel him with shoes. Oops. Up side the head! The only thing protecting him is the Secret Service. The best thing for him to do is find a closet in the family house in Texas, then lock the door behind himself.

White people don't want to have to pick cotton, grapes or lettuce to make a living or feed their families. They want White privilege 24/7 and want me & you to struggle forever, while they invest in their 401K retirement plans and drink mint juleps. Doesn't that sound familiar?

Never forget that President Obama, the Commander & Chief of the United States, is the first Black man to have his finger on a nuclear trigger.

We still have a few Negro people that think that they are White people with a permanent suntan. It may not be time to get rid of the "N" word just yet. This type of Negro is depressing. They seem to think that White people respect them when they are kissing White people's azz. How does it feel to have White stink & Do-Do on your face Negro.

Slaves are not sovereign. Slaves are not property owners. Slaves suffer from depression, because slaves have to face the reality of being someone else's property. Slaves depend on others for food, clothing, shelter, jobs and protection. Slaves can have licenses, degrees and all kinds of paper as long as they know to stay in their place. Slaves only run off at the mouth to other slaves or they get shot or beat down.

The time is now Black elders. If you want to run legitimate Black candidates for office, your children will support you. But if you want to run White people for office, your children will lose interest. I am not talking about Black bootlickers, but strong Black candidates for their people. I don't give a dam who died so somebody could vote, if there is nothing to vote for except White Supremacy, YOU ARE SPINNING AROUND IN CIRCLES LIKE A CHICKEN WITH THEIR HEAD CUT OFF! Nobody with good sense died so that White Supremacy could rein over Black people in the Americas for another 200 years.

Believe it or not- Instead of Barack Obama as President, you could have had Sarah Palin and what's his name.

Broke-A-Sexuals- some of these people running around saying that they are homosexual, are not. There is nothing gay or happy about them. They are just a bunch of depressed & broke azzes that will do anything for money. To be truthful, they are an embarrassment to anybody that might proclaim they were born a homosexual or whatever. These tired azz males and females are just looking for somebody to take care of them. What we have here is nothing but tricks trying to turn some tricks!

The Somalian tax and tariff collectors, Europeans call them pirates, have found interesting methods of paying their dry cleaning bills. Its all about having disposable income isn't it? If you play in somebody's State, failed or not, aren't you suppose to pay some taxes or compensation to the piper? Maybe what we see is some form of Tea Party Somalian style.

Arabs have colonized Northern Africa. You do not go into or leave that part of Africa without Arab permission. You must have some type of pass document and permission to see any pyramids, statues or monument made by ancient Africans. Any Black person entering is watched and monitored. So if you want to start some freedom shyt or "those are my ancestors" shyt in Arab dominated countries, you had best come correctly or stay at home on the plantation you came from.

Black people are starting to be just like White people with this copyright, patent, and plagiarism thing. It's nothing to hear knuckleheads calling one another "thought criminals". We have got to get outta this place, if it's the last thing we ever do.

Black GrapeVine news- Feminist don't particularly like Michelle Obama, because she has Black children, she isn't a lesbian and she is at a man's side that is not a slouch. She has educational training and a prominent job, but she puts her family above what feminist believe to be some kind of social status. No one in their right mind would confuse her with being like Oprah Winfrey, Tara Bank or Robin Givens. To African / Black people, she has aspired beyond Earthly realms. There are no words in the English language to describe what she brings to our community and brethren. Kama Ma Ma, Kama Binti!

Tea Party news- What we have here is a bunch of homeless, hungry and sick-o looking people making under 200,000 annual income, bitching about their taxes being raised.

White people will pick up weapons to survive in these times of Economic problems, but they won't do a dam thing to bring justice in a society of White Supremacy, that gives them White privilege.

Black people are strong believers in European fairy tales and movies as a source of information. Black people in the United States are strong believers in cartoons too, with no similarities to Africa, because they are not living within their own culture. When you believe in things that you don't understand, you suffer.

Rumor has it that President Obama is going to bring Madea to the White House to make Black Christians happy! If they can have Oprah Winfrey at the White House, they might as well bring Tyler Perry, dress, stockings, make-up, lip stick, fake eye lashes, contacts, hair weave and all!

Don't think that brother Eric Holder, the Black Attorney General of the United States, don't have his people watching and analyzing those "Tea Party" people. We need us some White COINTELPRO Home Security right now!

Now that Rap is dying down, the youth that could not make a substantive living in Rap, must decide what they are going to do without the possibility of Superstardom controlled & produced by the Europeans Corporations. They must make some kind of existence within their own community. The over 30 crowd. You can see some, instead of makin Rap Wars with microphones, they are taking to the streets with video cams, competing and trying to smash each other for spots on corners, U-Tube, the Internet and whatever else they can play & prey on each other. The enemy is the Black competition, because they can't compete with White boys & girls and they dam sure don't want solidarity with anybody that really organizes Black people. They must deal with the enemy within, as long as nobody suspects that they are the Agent Provocateurs. The show must go on! Stick a microphone in anybody's face, so they can run their face with misinformation, like a new age Negro on steroids. Look out for Recovering Rap Losers trying to find their way to consciousness, with actions like video spitting' battles or trashing everybody around them like they are stupid. Because they are filled with hatred for self, it called...Black Hawk Down! Black Hawk Down! Heru turned Hancock!

If you act right and stay in the books that others prescribe to you, one day the Elite may make you a Dr., a credible entertainer, a ball playa or whatever they feel comfortable with you being. You could be made HNIC if you act right! Only the rulers of a society know your destiny in there society. Very few break any chains and most remain underground until death, making little noise, unless they can get a job. Is this depressing or oppressing?

White-collar criminals, with White faces, are keeping their eyes on working peeps pensions. This kind of stealing has been going on for years, but may have reached its peak with help from the Bush Administration. It's like putting cash money in a bucket with a hole in it and running through the streets of any suburban area. U stupid!

Black GrapeVine news- some of the people talking about the current Economic crisis seem to forget that some people have been living an economic crisis all their lives.

Now young White couples have gone from homeowners to renters.

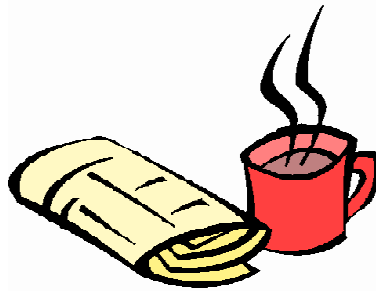

Aspartame has been linked to brain cancer, memory loss, impaired vision, hearing loss, joint pain, asthma, seizures...and the list just keeps going.

Black females are being taught that it's OK to pose half naked or buck naked for payola. You can't tell them nothing. Somebody has convinced them that the Evil Empire is some kind of Party City for Black females and they shouldn't be hurt or hunted-down in a dog eats dog society. Who's been educating our children anyway?

By now, we all know that some of the best philosophers come out of jail. Nowadays they might call themselves occultist or metaphysicians or whatever. As long as they don't unify their own people to do something besides their daily rituals of make-up, TV, jobs and cartoons, they all right with White people. Is this depressing or oppressing?

Church attendance in Caucasian dominated areas is on the decline. So to make some money and get a locked in audience, White Christians and Muslims are attacking the continent of Africa with religious fervor and millions of Africans are responding. Pale people are using religion to re-colonize the Motherland once again.

Michael Jackson has changed his hair, his nose and bleached his skin and he still looks like a Negro. We say Negro because some Negroes don't like the word nigger and he dam sure don't look like a Black man.

Once you sign a contract to have your life story done as a movie, you have to take the money and move your azz. You do not have final say over what product comes out of the cutting room. If Holly wood wants to make you look like an idiot, you can sue, but you did take the payola. Maybe you are or were an idiot.

Brazilian President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, blamed what he called "white, blue-eyed" men for causing the economic downturn that is destabilizing so much of the planet.

Moor Black GrapeVine news-Rumor has it that Black people are moor concerned with designer handbags, lipstick, gold chains, fancy cars, make-up, what's on TV and getting' twisted than they are about technology. If that is the case, our children are fu#ked. They too will be someplace begging and filing out application and resumes for food, clothing and shelter.

Whoever is in the White House, Black people have to be prepared for whatever! Is you down with that Homey?

Somali pirates off East Africa recently freed a Ukrainian ship with a Panamanian registration, a Ukrainian crew and flag of Belize. The freighter carried tanks, rockets and munitions destined for Darfur, and is owned by an Israeli businessman and reputed MOSSAD operative named Vadim Alperin.

If you have money, this is a good time to buy up whatever makes you happy, especially for investment purposes.

Black GrapeVine news- Black people must prepare themselves for tormented Black souls that will be doing witch hunts on their own people these coming years. As money gets tight, a lot of finger pointing and jealousies will pop up. A lot of people feel they own something or are entitled to something that may not even exist. The only thing they might own is their vivid imagination and they may not find many sellers. Hold on to what you got!

If you think you are alienated and rejected because you don't subscribe to European ways and beliefs, don't feel lonely. Just stop believing so much of what you see on television. There are a lot more Black folks that feel their situations are f@cked up that you can imagine. We just haven't figured out a way to really get Pan-Afrikanism in full swing yet. Always bet on Black!

One of the latest fads is "sexting", where girls are texting their naked pictures via cell phone. Girls will be girls. Seems like in European dominated societies females are getting away with a lot of strange behaviors that males might be ostracized for. Maybe, maybe not!

Sometimes people tend to forget that the United States is a corporation and not a country.

The Prison Industrial Complex in the United States is the latest version of the slave dungeons, slave castles and slave forts found in Africa.

White people are having their drinks spiked in bars abroad, from Asia to Central & South America. The victim or target unknowingly drinks a beverage that has been secretly mixed with a drug that renders the victim unconscious for several hours. Then large sums of money are charged to the trick's credit card or the card is stolen outright, before the drugged person wakes up in the bar or on the street. It ain't date rape, but what goes around, comes around.

There are 206 bones in the average human adult's body, with 54 of them in the hands and 52 of them in the feet.

Wigger news- Europeans girls and boys know that the best way to get ahead is to go to college and get some good "Willie Lynch" training, especially in the United States. Many of their Negroes pursue the same systematic path without even knowing what they do. Western schools crams and programs naive thought paths with Cave Man and Cave Woman stuffing, misnomered as education. The whole dam world knows it, but those Euros got jets, satellite technology and nuclear weapons to help them play their silly games of White Supremacy.

A bunch of unorganized men & women on Public Assistance, squatting in vacated houses or vacant buildings does not make a Nation. You got to get organized and make some noise.

In the United States, younger mentally ill people now make up more than 9 percent of that nation's nearly 1.4 million nursing home residents. Old people are not alone. They may be stuck with some homicidal maniacs.

A 2008 study by Yale's Rudd Center for Food Policy and Obesity suggests weight bias is as prevalent as racial discrimination. They seem to think that a skinny or fat White person has to face the same bias as a Black person living in America. Wigger, is you crazy?

If a Black Jesus appeared, Black people would run away from him and White people would kill him again. Jerusalem Slim wouldn't have a chance!

Pakistan remains an ally of the United States, ever though tensions continue to rise as the U.S. considers broadening military strikes within Pakistan's borders. How long Yo?

What's up with President Obama and his National Civilian Security Force? It seems that Obama wants to create a volunteer organization of young people as big and as well funded as the U.S. military. The members would have to wear uniforms and attend academies. This "Force" is expected to be funded with an allocation of $6 billion over the next five years, according to the Congressional Budget Office.

Back in the day it was, "Before I be a slave, I be buried in my grave". Now its "I gotta get paid. I gotta do whatever it is I must do to get paid. I don't owe nobody nothin! Never say never! Whatever! I be your faggot, bytch, whore, lap dancer, azz kisser or boot licker, just pay me. Sound familiar? Is it time to get rid of the "N" word yet or do we have a lot more work to do Boo?

The Nubian Times

The Food Safety Administration is coming if Rosa DeLauro, a Democrat from Connecticut has her way. The Food Safety Administration, within the Department of Health and Human Services, would allow the government to regulate food production at all levels – and even mandate property seizure, fines of up to $1 million per offense and criminal prosecution for producers, manufacturers and distributors who fail to comply with regulations. This legislation has peeps about to freak out about losing any form of organic agriculture.

Either White people are in denial about their drug and drinking problems all across America or they are just plain stupid azzes. The last thing you want to give a Cracker is a car and some alcohol. They will run anybody over. Here lately, millionaire Negroes have the same habit as some poor bar hopping hill-Billie. Time was if you heard about a drunk driver it was a Wigger. Now it's a millionaire Negro that makes the news pissy drunk behind the wheel, too stupid to hire a limo or get a chauffeur.

The United States of America has just stepped up its ongoing war for control of Sudan and her resources: petroleum, copper, gold, uranium, fertile plantation lands for sugar and gum Arabic, which are essential to Coke, Pepsi and Ben & Jerry's ice cream.

For-profit companies that typically make around $5,000 per camera each month are operating some of the "traffic" cameras you see installed at intersections.

Women want a global police force to protect them from violence from males and other females that will rob, beat, maim and kill those that are less fortunate. A global 911, HELP-ME LINE, because somebody wants to trash me, whip on me and I have no one to protect me.

Many Hispanics, Ricans and Cubans are living proof that slave masters slept with their own slave children.

Negroes don't even call themselves dawgs anymore. Can you believe some of these fools are calling themselves MUTTS. A little bit of this and a little bit of that. Everything but their dominant gene, carbon based Black!

Back in the day, White men didn't need education to create Empire and profit; they just needed a large abundance of captured Africans they could chain and enslave to do their bidding.

Dignity and Self-Respect are some of the most powerful tools we have in the Black community.

Rumor has it that the Big Bad Wolf shot 3 Somali tax collectors in Somali waters and now the stakes have been raised for Europeans or anybody else traveling in that part of the Black World. What once was just trying to get some money, may now be full fledged give me your money and your life!

Homeland Security news-
According to the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)

database, as of Jan. 25, 2009, there are 32,000 immigrant detainees. To detain these immigrants, it costs the U.S. government around $141 a night. Most of these detainees have no representation and are "lost" and abandoned in the system. This problem is not going away and will only get bigger.

Many of the Big department stores in the Dirty South, during the times of the Civil Rights Movement, were owned by Jews. They practiced discrimination just like everybody else.

The new tricks of right now-Ain't too much difference between dancers for money and actors for money. Either one of them will take their clothes off and perform cheap, calling themselves working their way up. Females tricks will pretend they a man and boy tricks will wear a dress, pretending they are a woman anytime. Most of them will do just about anything. They get down with males, females or whatever. All they know is they gots to be paid and they think they are being gay about it. They just a trick, taking part in the world's oldest profession, brought about by White women. It ain't about self-esteem, its about getting' paid.

Rumor has it that in Georgia, people who cannot pay their traffic fines are offered probation as an alternative to jail, and they can then be arrested for violating probation (without trial) if they miss paying their principle and interest on their tickets. Is this the return of debtor's prison?

If you think White people want you to be equal to them, you haven't given the Beast the credit it deserves. If you still thinking peace & friendship with this Beast...you loco.

Instead of working to eliminate racism, the United States chooses to attempt to eliminate conferences against racism.

I'LL LIGHT YOUR FIRE BOO!

Wigger news-The azz holes at AIG want bonus money for making bullshyt deals, ripping off foreign investors and anybody dumb enough to deal with them. Business as usual, but all of a sudden, the public wants to know who benefits. They want names of who made those bullshyt deals. Manipulating public opinion could start a witch-hunt. I have an extra book of matches to start a fire!

Being defeated by debt is as deadly as outright military warfare.

The US will remain militarily engaged in the war in Iraq for years to come. Is U crazy? Violence is a way of life for power hungry Crackers. They just need a steady stream of mercenaries from around the world to work on credit!

Homosexuals, Pedophiles and Child Molesters run freely in the Black communities of America with impunity. Straight people are now in the closet at most of your large to mid-size Black Churches. Most of the females and most of the males are afraid to voice dissent and have placed gags on their own mouths, for losing control of their children and their children's safety.

Posting a video on U-Tube might not make one a Hollywood star or even a celebrity. First...posting a video on U-Tube means you are a broke-azz trying to do whatever, because you can't get quality time in mass market media.

Second...those hitting the page might decide you are a Wack-o on X-tasy, maybe a nut with a feather in your hair or some alcoholic wearing tribal gear. Third...It's not like having your own web site with space to burn. You got a page Yo! U-Tube can be fun and loaded with information, but keep that ego in control.

I got your Recovery Boo!

Gender news- White females are making a demand on Black feminist that they share their men and any other resources that they might have with them. If they don't share them, White females are prepared to take them, in a survival of the fittest female version! They will come for you. You never miss your water, till the well runs dry.

If you don't look Roman, you ain't supposed to be nothing in White supremacy Boo. Anybody know what a Roman looks like?

African=Americans do not need any more PhD's in Dancing, Singing or playing with Balls.

You find very few children of Africans that were kidnapped and brought to the Americas that are not born into some kind of form of a bastardized Christianity or Islam. None of their religious practices are indigenous to the Americas.

Older residents are being terrified and beat up by staff and younger residents in nursing homes. This is what happens when you live in a culture that has no respect for its elders.

Avoid oral contact with your pets like White people do, as it greatly increases chances of parasite infection!

Black people are still going to hospitals thinking that these hospitals are "color blind". We must be suffering from depression, oppression and the Reverse Blues Yo!

In case of parasite infection, the whole family should be treated for worms, as well as your sex partner. Avoid oral and/or anal sex as it greatly increases chances of parasite infection!

The Indian Ocean off Somalia is not the property of the United States. Maybe the United States should have to pay some type of dues to Africans. Any corporation or any country that wants to ship in the Gulf of Aden, will have insurance rates will be sky high. Don't they pay the insurance companies to protect their stuff?

I just got my bonus check from AIG. Now I can afford that Mercedes, a helicopter and my very own luxury ocean liner which I've always wanted.

Poor, unskilled youth are the prime candidates for gangs. A young female with child can get welfare now for a while, but a young male with child, will only get a hard way to go.

OBAMA'S FAILURES

The Gospel According To

Dr. Vernellia Randall

“Importantly, Obama's decision not to participate in the Durban Review means that the first Black president will take the same action as his all white predecessors - refusal to engage and to be a leader in the elimination of racism.”

“In particular, the United States has failed to fully participate in every world conference on racism, i.e., 1978, 1983 and 2001. Now the United States has decided not to participate in the Durban Review Conference to be held April 20-24, 2009 in Geneva, Switzerland. It is time for the United States to be a leader on eliminating racism in the world and that can only occur if the United States stays at the international human rights table including participating in the Durban Review Conference. We challenge President Obama to take immediate and significant steps to repair the damage and improve the civil rights and human rights landscape in the United States.”

The Gospel According to

Dr. Valentine Ojo

“It couldn't have been better put - The History of the Black Race in a Nutshell.' Just look around at the madness being practiced by our African American cousins, called religion... The Arabs and the Europeans deployed their most lethal Weapons of [Psychological] Mass Destruction - Islam and Christianity – which they had already tried out on their own poor and deprived masses for centuries and noted how it worked wonders in helping keep and maintain their own despots in power and in control, with maximum devastation against the all but too supine and gullible Black man and woman.”

CHRISTIANITY & ISLAM

Dr. Valentine Ojo

“Both religions, reduced Africans to a state of abject servitude, and made out of a once proud race, a race of Non-Thinking Zombies, who now look up to other races for solutions to the problems of their daily existence - food, water and shelter. We are all living witnesses of their combined destructive forces...nuclear weapons couldn't have done a more thorough job on the psyche of the Black Race.”

AFRIKAN CENTERED

The Gospel According To

Dalani Aamon

“We have to transform ourselves away from this Eurocentric Holocaust into the Afrocentric way and tradition in which we were created. Then and only then will you see how great you and your offspring really are. Your Creator is awaiting your return.”

WELL I DECLARE!

The Gospel According To

Marc Morial

“The election of the first black president does not mean we can all now close up shop and go home.”

AFRICAN POLITICIANS

The Gospel According To

James Chikonamombe

“They say that astronauts and race-car drivers are assigned the highest life-insurance premiums. I wonder what the actuaries would assign to African politicians. There are few other occupations that are as hazardous as being an African politician - especially an opposition politician.

The Nubian Times

”Car crashes; assassinations; poisonings; daylight killings; all of these are what regularly befall African politicians. Even in relatively safe countries like Namibia, one hears of politicians' bodies being pulled out of mineshafts. Maybe, being a snake-catcher or a fire-eater (in the circus) is hazardous, but none of those occupations compare at all to being an African politician. It's frightening!”

GROUP CONSCIOUSNESS

Dr. Amos Wilson

“In order for us to be in the condition we are in as Afrikan people, we have to be out of our minds. We literally have to be crazy. Yes, into a deceptive state of consciousness, which does not permit us to operate as a group and to coordinate our behavior as a group. It puts us at odds, one with the other, and therefore making group achieved ends impossible.

AFRIKAN WEALTH

The Gospel According To

Dr. Amos Wilson

“The Creator could not have intended for us as Afrikan people to be poor people, if the Creator implanted in our soils all the wealth that was planted there.

BITTERNESS

The Gospel According to

Walter Sisulu

“Bitterness does not do your cause any good. That doesn't mean you don't get angry. But you don't let it get in the way of your policy.”

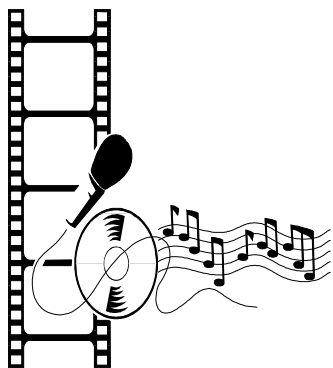

POWER AND RESPECT

The Gospel According To

Eldridge Cleaver

“The only thing that white people have that black people need, or should want, is Power and no one holds power forever.”

“Respect commands itself and can neither be given nor withheld when it is due.”

SAVE THE CHILDREN

Marvin Gaye / Regina Belle

I just want to ask a question
Who really cares?
To save a world in despair
Who really cares?

There'll come a time, when the world won't be singing
Flowers won't grow, bells won't be ringing

Who really cares?
Who's willing to try to save a world
That's destined to die

When I look at the world it fills me with sorrow
Little children today are really gonna suffer tomorrow

Oh what a shame, such a bad way to live
All who is to blame, we can't stop living

Live, live for life
But let live everybody

Live life for the children
Oh, for the children

You see, let's save the children
Let's save all the children
Save the babies, save the babies
If you wanna love, you got to save the babies

All of the children
But who really cares
Who's willing to try
Yes, to save a world
Yea, save our sweet world
Save a world that is destined to die

NIGGER WAKE-UP CALL

Paul Mooney

“I told White folks. I told Black people. Everybody gets their nigger wake-up call. And 9/11, it was a nigger ass wake up call... White folks were so worried about us, they were so concerned with us, so worried about the land niggers, they forgot about the sand niggers. And White people in America, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart as a Black person, thank you for making us tough, we'll get through this terrorist sh*t... You've been terrorizing us for 500 years. Lynching, sicking dogs on us... I'm worried about my white friends. I'm concerned about you. I'm opening up a school. How to be a nigger and survive.”

TUMBLIN' DOWN

Ziggy Marley

Here comes the eagle
Here comes the bear
And they're fighting to control
The lion's dominion

But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down

The Nubian Times

But the load gonna come tumblin'
down

Here comes synthetic food
And their big time money
And they want to control
Our body and soul

But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down

Here comes the maker
To crush the oppressor
Well I bet you didn't know
It was mind over matter

But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down
But the load gonna come tumblin'
down

CHRISTIANS

The Gospel According To
Brother Dawud Bailey

“If you could pull out a teaching, a people or a religion that needs to be killed on the spot, it's people that identify with churches and so-called Christians. And that's just the way it is. You can take it or leave it alone.”

WHITE PEOPLE DON'T WANT TO GO THERE!

The Gospel According To
Dr. Frances Cress Welsing

“White people are a tiny, tiny minority trying to figure out how they are going to survive, when they are surrounded by a non-White global majority that can effect their genetic annihilation, if everybody practices what Dr. Martin Luther King taught about everybody should love. Because if everybody loved and forgot about skin color, White would disappear!

11

LEVELS OF UNITY

The Gospel According To

Dr. Maulana Karenga

- 1) Self
- 2) Family
- 3) Neighborhood
- 4) Community
- 5) Nation
- 6) Race
- 7) World

POWER

The Gospel According To

Marcus Garvey

“The only protection against injustice in man is power...physical, financial and scientific.”

THE NIGGER INSIDE OF ME

Dr. Oloye

There is no doctor as yet that can remove it. It lives inside of me, as my own blood. Most of the time it is in control of my behavior. It is a daily battle to keep it at bay. Everywhere I go, it is there waiting to take control of my actions. It is worst than Aids, it has killed more people than war. Nobody talks about it in the public.

I discovered that the nigger has no color, race or creed. It is a creation of a project that went bad in America, and then the world. When you look or listen to the news, you will see the results of the nigger. The nigger is more powerful than a devil or demon.

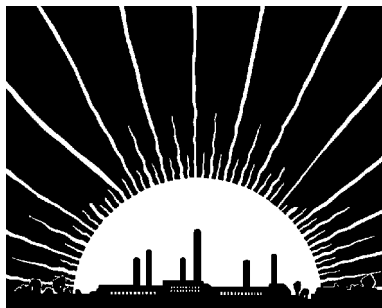

Some people kill others to keep the nigger from entering their society.

The nigger is easy to identify in some and hard to spot in others. The host of the nigger is often a human male. The nigger enters the host while it is still in the womb of a woman. The nigger will become active in its host around age seven. The nigger has other names of identity:

- 1.Black
- 2.White
- 3.Slave
- 4.Master
- 5.Motherfucker
- 6.Bitch
- 7.Dickhead
- 8.Flatback
- 9.Dog
- 10.Chickenhead

The Nigger inside of me.

EUROPEAN FACTS

SUBURBAN LEGENDS (RUMOR CONTROL)

The number of White women that are prostitute, pole dancers and pornography specialist is on the rise.

European ships have been looting Somalia's seas of their greatest resource: seafood. They have destroyed their own fish-stocks by over-exploitation - and now are moving on to Somalia's. Vast trawlers illegally sailing into Somalia's unprotected seas are stealing more than $300m worth of tuna, shrimp, lobster and other sea-life every year.

The Holy Roman Catholic Church, knowing that the Messiah was a Black Man, conveniently classified Black Afrikans as only 3/5ths human in order to justify slavery.

The Sun will never set on the British Empire. The Sun will never set on the American Empire.

White people in the United States are in denial about their drug usage. The Mexican Cartel Wars are about supplying White people with drugs, which trickle down to Blacks, Latinos and Native Americans users

The Nehrus and Gandhis inherited power from the British upon Indian independence.

A single Roman Catholic priest in Boston had abused at least 150 children.

The day will come again when European males and dike class females will have to trade their weaker females for food.

Rome became the Holy Roman Empire.

In Caucasian dominated areas, nursing homes have become dumping grounds for young and middle-age people with mental illnesses such as schizophrenia, depression or bipolar disorder. These young and stronger people on lock down are taking violence and rage out on older senior citizens that they are thrown into rooms with. In the United States alone, nearly 125,000 young and middle-aged adults with serious mental illness lived in U.S. nursing homes last year. Elderly resident now have to fight off younger nut cases and low-paid, overly aggressive nursing attendants & orderlies.

European and Western World Church memberships are on a constant decline.

White people are a type of people that can be classified as being religiously slick.

The government Of Iceland is being told to sell off the nation's public domain, its natural resources and public enterprises to pay the financial gambling debts run up irresponsibly by a new banking class. Their problems are even more devastating than the United States problems.

When colorless people feel like they are losing White privilege, they will kill their families, kill their co-workers, kill fellow students, kill anybody they come in contact with and then turn the gun on themselves and have no problem pulling the trigger.

Caucasians are not only having problems having sex, they also have problems having orgasms.

In Caucasian dominated societies, people are allowed to play with sex and gender, producing throwaway children by the hundreds of thousands.

The United States has no interest in doing away with narcotics. Narcotics have more value than their money.

Europeans were always under feudal lords and kings. They were always ruled. Most of their history is not democratic.

Caucasian have a different view of sex than Afrikans. Caucasians are more tolerant of men and women having sex with animals, with each other, with same sex, with parents and with children. Anything goes, including sex for sale. Caucasians have more of a tendency to equate violence with sex. Caucasians were the first to spread "whip appeal".

Europe recovered from it's economic depression of the Middle Ages at the expense of Afrika and the slave trade.

White people are some of the most powerful magicians on the planet. A major example of their work is Hollywood.

White people are less than 1/10th of the population of the planet. They truly are a "minority".

Albinoids create governments of the people, by the people and for the people and then say that they want government to stay out of their business.

There is no reason for Caucasians to classify themselves as white other than the reason of practicing white supremacy.

To Caucasians, religions are a universal Caucasoid phenomenon that shapes their various tribes with certain bedrock values. Some of them have humane dimensions, but they all turn ugly when they are threatened -- assassins, lynchings, jihad, slavery, crusades, etc. etc. etc

The Stock Market is inherently elitist and the very essence of a good old boy network. One can make money investing in the stock market, but the market also contains insider wheeling and dealing and manipulation that goes on daily with or without the involvement of accountants or politicians. Wall Street itself is sometimes considered a Pyramid scheme.

During and immediately after Mediaeval times, most Europeans were surfs and peasants. The vast majority of the people were poor, they owned no land, money or assets. What many of the poor whites did to improve their lot was to sign on as indentured servants, seamen, slave catchers & pirate ship crew members. All Europeans benefited from the Trans-Atlantic slave trade, imperialism and colonialism with an improvement in their standards of living. Actual trading and investment opportunities were limited to the nobility and upper classes, but all Europeans still benefited from Africa and Asia's devastation.

In their own countries, Caucasians feel unable to approach Black men and women, but when they travel, by the use of male, female & child prostitutes they are able to get close to others and really bridge differences. They believe these escapades are learning about other cultures, promoting racial harmony and reversing fears about race conflict.

Multi-national corporations feel that the American public is a resource to be exploited not unlike minerals from Africa or oil from the Middle East.

FIGURATIVELY SPEAKING

(Higher Education)

Reprint of Uncle Jessie

For the past several months I have been getting me a little schooling at a community college near me. It's been fun and I hope to finish up before midnight. As I wrote this article, I realized that I was not in class, so I am free to choose to talk and write however I want to communicate to my people. Passing tests and exams hasn't been a problem, but the people I love the most don't communicate like that. If you don't understand where I am coming from, then maybe what I have to say is not for you. This here is higher education!

Anyway, I just wanted to write a little somethin', somethin' about two different ways of communicating with English in the United States. What I want to high light first is “Literally Speaking”. For the most part, literally speaking means you come off exactly as you write or speak. A word you communicate can be looked up in the dictionary and that is exactly what you mean. You know what I’m saying? When somebody calls you a bitch, they are literally calling you a female dog. If they twist their face or head a certain way, that might be the only way you know that they literally mean what they say. That’d be a fighting word and somebody would have to have their lip busted!

“Figuratively Speaking” is a little different. That’s the next thing I want to cover. When a person communicates figuratively, what they are saying may not be found in a dictionary. It’s like you can call somebody a name, but what you mean won’t be found in no Webster. Somebody from another part of the country or even another ‘hood might not know where you are coming from. It’s like calling somebody a bitch and your not trying to insult them. You could be “figuratively speaking” and just mean for them to get out of your face, without all of the negative over tones of an argument or fight.

Now where I’m coming from, most Black people communicate both literally and figuratively. In our communities, it doesn’t take a rocket scientist to figure that out, but we get attacked by outsiders simply because we don’t follow the King’s or the Queen’s English just like whomever thinks we should. The real deal is that Black people don’t like being locked-in or the subjects of just any old king or old queen. We talk how we like and know how to get our messages to our loved ones.

Black people are always going to communicate figuratively and literally. They are always going to use metaphor and allegory in their communication, but that’s the subject of another conversation. If you don’t understand where I’m coming from, then maybe what I have to say is not for you. This here is higher education!

WHAT TIME IS IT YO?

Reprint-Submitted by Divine1on1

The plantation is when and where Caucasians monitor your arrival, your phone time, your break time, your bathroom time, your sit-down time, your stand-up time, your how much space you occupy time, your talk time, your over time and your departure time.

Caucasians control your eat time, where you eat and maybe what you eat. They also monitor whether you make enough money to eat, drink or be merry. They monitor your grooming time, you better appear & dress like this time, your snitch time and your bitch time. They even monitor your time-out. The boss-master decides how much vacation-time you get and the boss of the boss decides if you qualify to have sick-time. “You fired” means they monitor your whip appeal time too. OOPS! They control your “Let’s Chill” time too Boo.

Caucasians control your time in the game, your time in the saddle or whether you spend your time riding the pine, because they control SHOWTIME. They control how much playtime y’all playas get and they also control the pout time of the playa haters. They also control your Goddamn time, because they control your Jesus and your Allah time. You dig...time is running out Yo. Caucasians control yo time as a gangster and the time they be real gangster on yo azz Boo. Who you? It’s time for a change. You need to get some time for Yo SELF.

Crackers down wit the jail time, just like it was yo time to cry or time for yo to get bail or a time to give up and out to die. No time for jokin’. The whole world thinks u a clown on lock-down.

Well, now is the time to reflect on yo lifetime and not spend so much time messin’ around. It is reality time. You do not have much time left to be phony. There is no time like the present for Black time, except if you are too high and ego trippin’!

Do you have the time to give some time to your people or will you let time pass you buy with life on the plantation? Does the nation you belong to have an army? Make it nation time on your mind. Times Out! Stay alert, strong & conscious.
